

XM is amazing and the stations they offer are invaluable to my service. why block what has been working? If these sations are dropped i will still continue to support XM and what they offer, but if the gov't does bock the stations such as weather and traffic it will just be another example of how tyranical our gov't is becoming.